

Kali Yuga - The Dark Times??

By A. True Ott, PhD June 21, 2010

For the record, I am a Christian. I do not personally believe that “star charts” and/or numerology determine an individual’s destiny, nor does “planetary alignment” determine what will, or will not happen on planet earth. However, non-Christians (as well as anti-Christians) such as Satanists, Talmudic Jews, Freemasons, and practitioners of witchcraft (WICCA) apparently place great confidence in such “heavenly signs and wonders”. “As Above, So Below” is their mantra. They believe that what happens in the night sky (above) MUST DICTATE what happens on earth (below).

I feel the need to echo the words of C.S. Lewis: “There are two equal and opposite errors into which our race can fall about the devils. One is to disbelieve in their existence. The other is to believe, and to feel an excessive and unhealthy interest in them. They themselves are equally pleased by both errors...” (Quoted from “The Screwtape Letters”)

I submit that if a Christian is to protect his home and family, the plan of the enemy of Christ must be analyzed and exposed. As my Bible exhorts: “And do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them” (Ephesians 5:11).

Last week, on Wednesday June 16, 2010 – I received a number of phone calls and messages regarding my paper titled “MIRACL ILLUMINATION” which was posted on my website: www.atrueott.com. I was notified that the FBI was investigating a possible security breach at Tampa Florida’s MacDill Air Force Base, and wanted to know where I received my information. Wednesday evening, there happened to be fatal shooting at MacDill – where an FBI agent shot and killed a 61-year-old serviceman. In case you don’t know, MacDill AFB is the location of Central Command – where the entire war in Iraq and Afghanistan is computer-controlled. Also, if indeed a “deuterium-fluoride chemical laser weapon” was deployed against the BP Deepwater Horizon rig, Central Command at MacDill in Tampa would have a record of it. No wonder the FBI was so busy last Wednesday night at MacDill.

On Thursday, June 17, I received a very short and cryptic e-mail – with no return address nor sending loop data. I thought it was sent by mistake – yet my computer crashed and my website went down hours after opening the post. Then, amazingly, it disappeared from my inbox after I cut and pasted it to MS Word on the advice of a friend in Washington D.C. Here is the post:

Then, strangely enough, Thursday evening I received a short visit from two gentlemen who claimed to be from the Air Force's CID (Hill AFB contingent). Basically, they advised me to stop broadcasting secret information on my radio shows – that I was “hurting my country” and I was being “irresponsible as a journalist”. They warned me that “people could be hurt” before leaving without even a handshake.

All this past weekend, I have meditated and pondered over the events of the last 72 hours. What was the string of numbers placed in the e-mail? Was it a code of some sort – or just computer gibberish tied to some embedded virus in the e-mail?

Last night, (Sunday), I had a dream of sorts. In this dream I found myself eavesdropping on a high-level Illuminati meeting. They were discussing something called “Operation Blackjack” which was officially to be renamed “Operation Swift Fox”. They were saying that journalists at the London Telegraph had broken their codes, and had figured out that “BlackJack” was to commence on June 21, 2010 – 21 being “blackjack” in the card game, and that 6-21-2010 was encoded in their astrology and embodied two “blackjacks” (2010 is also 21 when zeros are removed)!

Today, I thought I would investigate my “dream” and google up “Operation BlackJack”. Sure enough, the London Telegraph had a website dedicated to this “fictional” false flag operation. Intrigued, I spent two hours going over each and every page. Then I found this page on the Telegraph's website:

The “ID Card” had a weird string of numbers similar to my mysterious e-mail! Could this be a binary code of some sort I wondered? I began to search online for binary codes, and came up with something called a Hexadecimal system after doing a word search for “binary codes”. According to Wikipedia hexadecimal codes can be used by computer hackers and others at the NSA to encrypt coded messages across cyberspace. I found there is even an online program that can convert the “HEX” numbers into the English words, and vice versa. See the website www.string-functions.com/hex-string.aspx

Ok, now this is getting VERY interesting. When one goes to the website above, and types in the "ID Card" string of numbers, one gets the secret message: "this is not simply entertainment". Of course it's not. Why would the Telegraph waste so much time, money and energy on an entertaining spoof?

When I typed in the mysterious string from the e-mail:

54617267657420446174657320362f32312f3230313020536f6c737469636520362f32362f32303130204752414e442043524f5353

I received this result:

Target Dates 6/21/2010 Solstice 6/26/2010 GRAND CROSS. Apparently, then, "Operation Swift Fox" (aka Operation Blackjack) is to commence between the summer solstice of June 21, and Saturday, June 26, 2010.

What is amazing is the capitalization of the words GRAND CROSS!! Also, keep in mind that Hex is a Greek word meaning 6. It also is tied to the "hexagram" which is how Satanists "cast their spells". Cerberus and Pegasus International are two multi-national military-industrial corporations involved in this "operation" – both of which utilize mythical Greek icons for their names!! (Cerberus is the three-headed dog that guards the gates of Hell!!)

The hexagram is also referred to as the "Seal of Solomon" is said to be one of the most powerful symbols in the Occult. Oddly enough, it is the symbol of modern Israel!!

Hexagram

But what is "the GRAND CROSS" and what about the dates on this encrypted message? What I found next literally made my blood run cold. Doing a simple online search for "the Grand Cross" led me to this astrology website. This is what I found on the website <http://www.mothersky.com/2008/07/the-cardinal-cross-years-2010-12/>

"There will be a series of Grand Crosses in the summer of 2010 –one of which occurs a few days after the solstice, (June 21, 2010) with seven planets participating. The square between Uranus and Pluto will form the backdrop, with Jupiter coupled with Uranus in early Aries and a Moon conjunction with Pluto in Capricorn adding a late-breaking note of immediacy. Saturn in late Virgo will form the third corner, and the Sun and Mercury, in Cancer, will form the fourth. This will give the solstice period — already considered a sacred portal for many spiritual thinkers, ancient and modern — the quality of a bulls-eye. Two years later, the Grand Cross of June 2012 will feature the ongoing square between Uranus and Pluto now joined by the Quarter Moon; meanwhile Neptune will have entered Pisces, and will be forming an exact mutable T-square with Jupiter, reinforced by the lunar nodes. By 2014 the two outer-planet overlords will have made their way to the middle degrees of the cardinal signs, paralleling a square between Mars and Jupiter in Libra and Cancer respectively; with a Moon-Pluto conjunction on April 20th again providing the grace note.”

“Students of the Mayan calendar may recognize this timing as lining up with the dates singled out at the Harmonic Convergence in 1987 by Jose Arguelles. ⁶ The ancient Mezo-Americans numbered among many indigenous traditions that foresaw the period we are now in as the end of a great cycle in human evolution and the beginning of another. The visionaries of prehistoric India referred to this era as the Kali Yuga: the Dark Times.”

And then on yet another astrology website:

- The June 26, 2010 eclipse: The lunar eclipse at 4° + Capricorn conjoins Pluto and activates a grand cross involving the Sun, Mercury, Jupiter, Uranus, the Moon, and Saturn. These are all within 5° of the four cardinal points. This will be a very important event, for better or worse, with a huge impact on global events.
- August 6-7, 2010: A cardinal grand cross is formed, involving Jupiter-Uranus in Aries, Pluto in Capricorn, the Moon in early Cancer, and Venus joining Mars and Saturn in early Libra. The Sun at 15° Leo makes stressful aspects to the entire grand cross. Calm and balance will be needed to deal with the relentless stressful aspects.

On yet another website, the “Moon-Pluto conjunction on April 20, 2010” is described as a “time of great ecological upheaval and disaster for the Earth”. Of course, this is the date when the DeepWater Horizon was attacked and the “oil volcano” began erupting. Is all of this just a mere coincidence??

As bizarre as it may be, the Ashkenazi Jews (aka Nazis) also have a very powerful occult symbol called the swastika. It is the symbol for “the Grand Cross”. The “swastika” or “grand twisted cross” is of ancient origin. It represents the four winds, four seasons and four points of the compass. The swastika below shows the elements or forces turning against nature and out of harmony. The swastika has been used not only by the Nazis but also by Hindus and various Satanic and occultic groups.
